Epic Rebuild Services for ICBT, Verdol and Volkmann

Volkmann is a trademark of Saurer, Verdol and ICBT are trademarks of ICBT/Reiter.

Epic has built a reliable reputation over the past 25 years for providing quality replacement parts and services to the textile industry. Over the last 15 years, we have developed a dependable, superior rebuild service for spindles and many other repairable items for Volkmann, Verdol and ICBT machinery. Exchange programs are often established for companies that require faster delivery. References are available upon request.

Our rebuild staff is exceptionally well trained and experienced. The procedures are performed to exacting standards. The state-of-the-art balancing equipment and modern facility are enclosed within our 40,000 square foot modern facility.

Epic will also train your plant maintenance personnel in the use of recommended tools and spindle rebuild methods here in our Southern Pines repair facility at no charge. Please call for information.

Our facilities are always open to our customers. We urge you to come meet our staff and see why Epic is at the forefront of growing companies serving the textile industry.

Some rebuild procedures are a set price while others are based upon the actual parts used and a labor charge. Past averages are provided upon request for informational purposes. Instructions can be implemented to call the customer for approval if rebuild exceeds a desired amount.
